

New brand Axians

Axians is the VINCI Energies brand dedicated to ICT.

In response to the needs of Clients the VINCI Energies Group has started the process of integration of telecommunications and IT services. To attain this goal, VINCI Energies has combined the three leading brands: GRANIOU, AXIANS and IMTECH ICT. As a result, the common AXIANS brand which forms a solid foundation for the further development of the Group on the ICT market has been introduced in all the international entities.
